

NORTH CAROLINA ASSOCIATION FOR HOSPITAL CENTRAL SERVICE PROFESSIONALS

RAY MANNING, SR., ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Ray Manning Sr. was a founder and President of Southeastern Hospital Supply in Fayetteville, NC who had been instrumental in establishing the NCAHCSP in his unfailing support of our Association. This award is presented annually by the NCAHCSP for outstanding achievement in the field of Central Service.

At the North Carolina Association for Hospital Central Service Professional's annual meeting, we will be presenting the annual Ray Manning, Sr. Achievement Award. This award is to recognize an outstanding individual in the field of Central Service.

The Award:

- 1 Registration fee and accommodation expenses are paid for this year's NCAHCSP annual meeting.
- 2 An engraved plaque.

The Recognition Committee is asking each Central Service Professional to review the material, and to nominate a deserving individual for this award. In addition to the recognition, the recipient will receive free registration, and hotel accommodations, to the NCAHCSP annual meeting, as well as a plaque honoring them for this prestigious award.

All nominations must be postmarked by March 1, so they are received by the called Board of Directors meeting. The member or nominee must complete the Award Application Form.

Nomination for this award must be postmarked by March 1.

The winner of the Achievement Award will be kept as secret as possible; however, the employee's supervisor will be notified prior to the Annual Meeting, so that preparations can be made for that person to attend.
